BRITISH BASED STALLIONS

To Stud in 2007, 2008 and 2009

In the current challenging economic climate, breeders may be more inclined to turn to proven stallions when formulating their mating plans. This feature aims to remind breeders that there is great value on offer from some of the 'younger' stallions standing at stud which should not be overlooked.

41 stallions who stood their first season in 2007, 2008 and 2009 are featured. Click on to one of the links below to view the valuable bloodlines and impressive race performances of these stallions.

EQUINE CONFERENCE

IN OMAN 30 Jan-5 Feb

To most Europeans, any mention of the United Arab Emirates immediately conjures visions of Dubai and Abu Dhabi.

Less well known is Oman, a country of staggering beauty, historically pro-British, and the venue for an equine Conference which could have wider implications for the Thoroughbred World.

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN

Our first BBM eNewsletter from 190 High Street, Newmarket was emailed to over 5,000 recipients worldwide, and the feedback has been upbeat and complimentary.

We will attempt to maintain the momentum with our second missive - I hope you find the Stallion Feature and National Hunt Racing Review useful, and the report on Oman informative.

Snow and ice in UK, coupled with those horrific fires in South Eastern Australia, have only added to the global economic gloom - but the delights and thrills of Cheltenham are only three weeks away, to be followed swiftly by the start of the Flat racing season later in March.

St Valentine's Day has been and gone - 'love is in the air' for humans, and for all thoroughbred stallions who have celebrated the official start of their covering season.

The incredible Tony McCoy achieved his 3,000th winning NH ride - and there is to be a giant sculpture of a grey Thoroughbred horse, in Ebbsfleet, towering over the county of Kent, and greeting Continental visitors emerging from the Channel Tunnel.

A tonic for the Nation - and the best possible boost for our noble Sport.
